

The top landscape service providers throughout the United States are Powered by LandOpt.

What does it mean to be Powered by LandOpt?

Powered by LandOpt Contractors are part of a unique network of independently owned landscape contractors who are among the very best in their local market. LandOpt Contractors are individually chosen to exclusively represent a region based on their unique qualifications. As such, your local LandOpt Contractor is the only one of its kind in your area. A LandOpt Contractor offers the quality service you expect from a locally-owned company, while taking advantage of the training and technology that only a national company like LandOpt can provide. The real power of the LandOpt Contractor Network is seen in how our contractors work together to share industry knowledge and best practices. They are consummate professionals who operate according to well defined processes and systems, delivering consistent service to you time and again.

Why should I choose a Powered by LandOpt Contractor?

A passion for superior service and the Green Industry is the common bond that Powered by LandOpt Contractors share; a commitment to understanding your needs, accomplishing your goals and creating long-term customer relationships is what makes them unique.

The benefits of working with a Powered by LandOpt Contractor are many:

- Assurance that all of your goals and needs are thoroughly addressed through a comprehensive, professional sales process
- Prompt, professional, consistent service from a locally-owned company backed by the training, resources and industry knowledge of a national network of contractors
- A commitment to safety and education driven by regular LandOpt Network training that centers on honing skills and best practices
- A focus on customer service that includes ongoing communication by a skilled account management team charged with ensuring that your services are being delivered in the manner that was promised, along with providing an opportunity to discuss new challenges and needs as they arise
- The knowledge that you are working with the best, most professional landscape contractor in your community – one that has a passion for being a leader in the Green Industry
